YOUR REFRESHING SOLUTION!

What is LemonAid?

- take four people who like to have fun
- add music from music-hall times through the fifties, sixties and even later
- flavour to taste with much original humour
- season with a good helping of audience participation and serve

Result - A recipe for a refreshing evenings entertainment in the company of LemonAid.

What is the entertainment provided?

A full evenings entertainment would consist of two, one-hour sessions with a twenty minute break (or longer if required). During the break you may sell refreshments or do something else raising additional funds e.g. organize a draw.

What will it cost?

For all deserving charities there is NO COST whatsoever. ALL proceeds go to the charity concerned.

So what do you have to do?

Not much. Just provide us with a place to play and an audience to play to. The venue can be a church hall, a community centre, a barn, a room in a pub, a garden (only in summer if the weather is fine please), in fact anywhere where you can gather together an audience. We can play to twenty people or two hundred. It is up to you how many tickets you can sell. We can even design and print tickets and posters and take care of all publicity if you wish, again at no cost to your organization.

In short all we ask is a place to play and people to play to. We will do everything else. Your organization books and pays for the venue and sells the tickets – no more, no less.

Have we done this before?

Yes for sure! To date we have performed many LemonAid fund raising concerts (including some return visits) and have raised almost £10,000 for a variety of charities. Additionally we have performed at other functions where the object was not geared to raising money
